1st Class Cooking (Dutch Oven Cooking)

The Dutch Oven is one of the easiest way to cook outdoors. This class will teach you how to prepare and cook a variety of meals and desserts in a Dutch oven. This is a hands-on class.

BS103 10-10:55 AM

Boy Scout Board of Review (1st Class - Life Scout)

A board of review focuses on a Scout's accomplishment and progress. The issues addressed can be about the Scout or the troop. The board of review is a chance for the troop committee to get a sense of how the troop is doing and to permit them to offer support where needed. Uncover the proper methods of conducting a Board of Review.

BS100 9-11:55 AM

Den Chief Training (3 hours)

A Den Chief is a Boy Scout who assists a Cub Scout or Webelos Scout den leader at den meetings, pack meetings, and other events. He is the "Activities Assistant" for a Cub Scout den or Webelos patrol. Den Chiefs are a great recruitment tool. This course will train Boy Scouts to become Den Chiefs. Fulfils requirements for BSA Training C31

BS102 1-2:55 PM

Eagle Scout Board of Review/Timeline Paperwork (Adult & Youth) (2 hours)

This class will teach everything that Scouts, Scout leaders and the troop advancement chair need to know about overcoming the challenges and obstacles in getting from the Life rank to Eagle. Completing the Eagle Scout application and the related paperwork requires attention to detail and good planning. Avoid errors which could cause delays. Know about properly completing the paperwork for Eagle. This class will cover the approval process for the Eagle Scout Service Project. We will also discuss the process to putting together the application packet for Eagle Scout Award. The third part of this class will cover setting up the Eagle Board of Review and the appropriate way to conduct this final step in the Eagle Scout Award process.

High Adventure Trips & Camps (Adult & Youth)

Older Scouts are eager for more challenges and more excitement. There are plenty of opportunities both in Hawaii and on the mainland. Learn what's involved with taking your troop on high adventure outings.

BS105 10-10:55 AM

The Boy Led Troop

Empowering boys to be leaders is the core of Scouting. Scouts learn by doing. In order to teach leadership, you have to let the boys lead. A boy-led troop is more work for the adult leadership, and therein is the problem. This class covers some of the common pitfalls and offers suggestions for how to facilitate a boy-led troop.

Big Is UoS Cub Scout Courses (Scheduled Classes)

CS105	2-2:55 PM	 Cub Scout Cooking The way to a boy's heart is through his stomach and it's even better when he does the cooking. This class will help you get your Cubs cooking!
CS103	2-2:55 PM	 Cub Scout Parenting 101 Are your pack parents either not involved at all, or way too involved? Learn how to handle both situations and strike the perfect balance of parent involvement that supports your program.
CS102	9-2:55 PM	 Cub Scout RangeMaster (5 hours) The exclusive opportunity for cub scouts to safely participate in BB Gun & Archery activities throughout District and Council events. This class provides leaders with a pool of Certified RangeMasters for a variety of shooting program opportunities. You will learn BSA safety regulations and knowledge for running a shooting program activity or event. Successful completion of the Certified RangeMaster training is good for 2 years.
CS100	9-11:55 AM	 Den Leader Training (3 hours) The Den Leader Position-Specific Training course provides Cub Scout den leaders with the basic information they need to conduct successful den meetings. When the training is complete training code C42 can be entered into the leaders' training records. Den leaders who complete this course and Youth Protection training are considered "trained" as Tiger, Wolf, and Bear den leaders or as Webelos den leaders.
CS104	1-1:55 PM	 Engaging Parents (Den Leaders/Cubmasters/Committee Members) We'll look at the responsibilities of the pack committee chair and the pack committee members. You will learn what they do, how they work with den leaders, the charter organization and parents. A valuable resource for the members of the pack Leadership Team.
CS101	1-1:55 PM	 Pinewood Derby / Raingutter Regattas It is through healthy competition that we can teach our scouts the Scout Law. Creativity, sportsmanship, and confidence are reinforced through annual regattas and derbies. This class will provide ideas on how to plan, prepare, and successfully carry out your unit races
CS106	2-2:55 PM	 Webelos to Boy Scout Transition Learn how to plan all those activities, camp outs, troop visits and fun. We'll show you how to transition your boys from Webelos to Boy Scouts.

Big Is UoS General Courses (Scheduled Classes)

GC105 10-10:55 AM

Bullying Awareness and Prevention

The idea that a Scout should treat others as he or she wants to be treated, A Scout Is Kind, is woven throughout the programs and literature of the Boy Scouts of America. When the principles of the Scout Oath and Scout Law are followed, bullying and hazing situations are never given opportunity to occur. This course will help you to address this issue through the emphasis on the principles of the Scout Oath and Scout Law.

GC104 1-1:55 PM

Campfire Program

Campfires are one of the most memorable parts of Scout camping. Planning and organizing a great campfire should be done well ahead of time. Learn how to make your campfire programs exciting, meaningful and fun by attending this class.

ScoutBook 101

With ScoutBook you can track advancement, upload photos and videos, send messages to leaders, Scouts and parents, plan events and track activities. ScoutBook provides access to valuable tools and resources that will help with the day-to-day management of a unit, giving every leader more of what they need most: time.

Short Games & Activities (for CS & BS leaders)

Participate and learn how to facilitate team building games. These games focus on communication, problem solving, trust, planning, leadership, goal-setting, and cooperation. You will leave the class with new tools to successfully lead "games with a purpose" in your own unit.

Unit Commissioner - 21st Century Training

Unit Commissioners help Scout units succeed. They coach and consult with adult leaders of Cub Scout packs, Boy Scout troops, and Venturing crews. Unit Commissioners help maintain the standards of the Boy Scouts of America. This training covers what Unit Commissioners need to know to be successful and effective. After completion of this course training code D20 can be entered into the leaders' training records. Beyond eLearning and Training Validation, there are many new online resources on this website, including tour plan completion, dashboards, service hours reporting, and BeAScout unit PIN management. This course will review how you can use these tools to your unit's advantage.

GC100 9-9:55 AM

Youth Protection Training

Youth protection certification is required to be renewed every two years for all Scout Leaders. Completing this class will meet the requirements for new leaders as well as recertification for current leaders. The certification will be valid for two years.
