uofs106	11-11:50 AM		106. Mentoring Skills MCS306 The course will discuss the new mentoring model, differences of coaching and mentoring and how it applies to commissioner service.
uofs107	1-1:50 PM		107. Recruiting a Commissioner Team MCS312 If you believe in what commissioner service does for America's youth, then you must also believe that the only way to provide quality unit service is through a complete team of commissioners in every district.
uofs108	2-2:50 PM		108. Onboarding New Commissioners MCS313 The purpose of the onboarding progress record is to make commissioner in their new position successful via ensuring they know the tools that are available and via a seasoned mentor.
uofs109	9-11:50 AM		109. Roundtable Basic By the end of the course, each participant will understand the basic requirements and duties of a Roundtable commissioner. They will learn about resources available to support Roundtables and the various ways to deliver information to unit leaders who attend. Topics covered include: Roles and Responsibilities of Roundtable Commissioner and Staff, Planning, Staff Management, Features of a good Roundtable, and Promotion.
uofs110	1-1:50 PM		110. The Roundtable Commissioner Team BCS151 An effective roundtable commissioner team is vital to the success of all roundtables. The roundtable commissioner team organization is as simple as it needs to be in a small district and can be a more complex organization in a larger district. It is important that all members of the commissioner roundtable team understand the unique position of roundtable in the Scouting world. Roundtable provides a different method of unit service, but it is just as important. Roundtable also supplements unit commissioner efforts by the program support it provides.
uofs111	2-2:50 PM		111: The Year Round RT Planning Process &amp; Promotion BCS152 In this course, the participants will be learning how to plan a year-round roundtable program to best serve the units in their districts. They will also discuss how to promote roundtables to the units they serve.
